Overview

The U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) seeks applications for funding for the fiscal year (FY) 2022 Victims of Child Abuse Regional Children's Advocacy Centers program. This program furthers the DOJ's mission by supporting and strengthening four regional children's advocacy centers that will deliver coordinated training and technical assistance within and across the regions to members of multidisciplinary teams, programs, and organizations to improve the investigation and prosecution of child abuse and neglect and the provision of children's advocacy center services to child victims and their families.

This solicitation incorporates the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide by reference. The OJP Grant Application Resource Guide provides guidance to applicants on how to prepare and submit applications for funding to OJP. If this solicitation expressly modifies any provision in the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide, the applicant is to follow the guidelines in this solicitation as to that provision.

Solicitation Categories

Eligible Applicants:

Other

Other

Eligible applicants are limited to local public and private nonprofit children's advocacy center agencies and organizations that can demonstrate a minimum of 5 years of experience providing regional or national training and technical assistance to a wide range of multidisciplinary professionals and others (including children's advocacy center staff) with respect to the judicial handling and investigative response to child abuse and neglect cases.

To advance Executive Order 13929 Safe Policing for Safe Communities, the Attorney General determined that all state, local, and university or college law enforcement agencies must be certified by an approved independent credentialing body or have started the certification process, to be eligible for FY 2022 DOJ discretionary grant funding. To become certified, the law enforcement agency must meet two mandatory conditions: (1) the agency's use-of-force policies adhere to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and (2) the agency's use-of-force policies prohibit chokeholds except in situations where use of deadly force is allowed by law. The certification requirement also applies to law enforcement agencies receiving DOJ discretionary grant funding through a subaward. For detailed information on this certification requirement, please visit <https://cops.usdoj.gov/SafePolicingEO> to access the Standards for Certification on Safe Policing for Safe Communities, the Implementation Fact Sheet, and the List of Designated Independent Credentialing Bodies

All recipients and subrecipients (including any for-profit organization) must forgo any profit or management fee.

OJJDP will consider applications under which two or more entities would carry out the federal award; however, only one entity may be the applicant. Any others must be proposed as subrecipients (subgrantees). For additional information on subawards, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

OJJDP may elect to fund applications submitted under this fiscal year (FY) 2022 solicitation in future fiscal years, dependent on, among other considerations, the merit of the applications and the availability of appropriations.

Submission Information

Applications will be submitted to DOJ in two steps:

Step 1: The applicant must submit by the Grants.gov deadline the required Application for Federal Assistance standard form (SF)-424 and a Disclosure of Lobbying Activities (SF-LLL) form when they register in Grants.gov at <https://www.grants.gov/web/grants/register.html>.

Beginning April 4, 2022, the Federal government will cease using the Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number to uniquely identify entities. At that point, entities doing business with the Federal government will use a Unique Entity Identifier (UEI) created in SAM.gov. If your entity is currently registered in SAM.gov, your UEI has already been assigned and is viewable in SAM.gov. This includes inactive registrations. If you are a new entity registering in SAM.gov, you will continue to register in SAM.gov using the DUNS number assigned by Dun and Bradstreet (D&B) until April 4, 2022. Upon completing your registration in SAM.gov, you will be assigned a UEI. For additional information, see the Unique Entity Identifier Update and the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

IMPORTANT: Grants.gov will transition to UEI at 11:59 p.m. eastern time (ET) on March 31, 2022.

To support this transition, DOJ will update all posted Grants.gov funding opportunity packages to reflect the use of UEI.

All entities applying for DOJ funding opportunities that have a Grants.gov close date after March 31, 2022, must take one of the following actions:

1) Complete and submit the SF-424 and SF-LLL no later than March 30, 2022, at 8:00 p.m. ET.

- If the SF-424 is not completed and submitted by this time, any information contained in the SF-424 will be lost during the transition.

- If this occurs, applicants will need to re-enter their data in the new SF-424 form upon returning to Grants.gov on April 1, 2022.

2) Wait until April 1, 2022, to begin and submit the Grants.gov application.

Step 2: The applicant must then submit the full application, including attachments, in JustGrants at JustGrants.usdoj.gov. To be considered timely, the full application must be submitted in JustGrants by the JustGrants application deadline. OJP encourages applicants to review the “How to Apply” section in the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide and the JustGrants website for more information, resources, and training.

Program Description

Overview

OJP is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights and racial equity, increases access to justice, supports crime victims and individuals impacted by the justice system, strengthens community safety and protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community.

The OJJDP FY 2022 Victims of Child Abuse (VOCA) Regional Children's Advocacy Centers (RCAC) program supports four regional centers—one situated within each of four designated U.S. Census regions—that enhance and support the development, expansion, and continuous quality improvement of multidisciplinary teams, local children's advocacy centers (CACs), and state chapter organizations responding to child abuse and neglect cases to improve the investigation and prosecution of child abuse and neglect and the provision of children's advocacy center services to child victims and their families.

Statutory Authority

Victims of Child Abuse Act, 34 U.S.C. 20303

Specific Information

The Victims of Child Abuse Act (VOCAA) provides for the establishment of regional CACs to deliver coordinated information, resource development, technical assistance, and training to assist communities in establishing facility-based multidisciplinary programs that respond to child abuse and neglect. The RCAC program's purpose is to improve the nation's response to child abuse and neglect through strategic coordinated delivery of training and technical assistance (TTA) to multidisciplinary teams, local CACs, and state chapter organizations. Additionally, under the RCAC program, each RCAC will work collaboratively and strategically with all other VOCAA TTA partners to provide strategic leadership, resource maximization, and capacity building nationwide.

CACs provide a coordinated response to victims of child abuse through multidisciplinary teams composed of representatives from community agencies and professionals involved with intervention, prevention, prosecution, and investigation systems that respond to child abuse and neglect cases. The program objectives of a CAC are to:

- Assist communities in developing child-focused, community-oriented, facility-based programs to improve the resources available to child victims and families.
- Provide support for family members who are not engaged in child abuse and neglect.
- Enhance coordination among community agencies and professionals involved in the intervention, prevention, prosecution, and investigation systems that respond to child abuse and neglect cases.
- Train physicians and other healthcare and mental healthcare professionals in the multidisciplinary approach to child abuse and neglect.

Successful operation of the RCAC program requires significant coordination and collaboration. To achieve the necessary level of coordination, OJJDP will require each of the four successful applicants to work in close partnership with each other and with all programs funded under the VOCAA. These programs include:

- Children's Advocacy Centers Membership and Accreditation Program.
- Training and Technical Assistance for Child Abuse Prosecutors.
- Training and Technical Assistance for Child Abuse Professionals.
- Children's Advocacy Centers National Subgrant Program.
- Tribal Children's Advocacy Centers Training and Technical Assistance Program.

OJJDP expects each regional awardee to strategically collaborate with all of the VOCAA-funded programs to annually maintain and update a 5-year strategic plan and a related operational plan to align efforts, maximize resources, and outline clear roles and responsibilities across the partners.

Goals, Objectives, Deliverables, and Timeline

The goal of this solicitation is to fund four regional children's advocacy centers – one in each of the four U.S. Census regions – that will provide coordinated delivery of a full complement of training, technical assistance, resource development, and information to develop and strengthen multidisciplinary team investigations and responses to child abuse and neglect.

The states included in each of the four U.S. Census Regions are:

- Northeast Region: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Vermont.
- Southern Region: Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia.
- Midwest Region: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin.
- Western Region: Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming.

Objectives

To accomplish its goal, OJJDP has outlined the following objectives to be achieved:

- Deliver systematic, coordinated, customized TTA in partnership with the other regions to communities, CACs, and state chapters that expand and strengthen capacity for a comprehensive, multidisciplinary approach to the investigation and prosecution of child abuse and neglect cases and evidence-based treatment for child abuse and neglect victims.
- Develop and strengthen capacity of state chapter organizations to deliver TTA to local CACs to meet the needs within the state on their own.
- Develop and/or expand TTA curricula, publications, and resources to support optimal practice implementation and to address new, emerging, and innovative areas identified as needed in the field.

Deliverables

The following lists the required deliverables for each RCAC, such as expected products, services, or activities that should be developed/delivered as a result of this program:

- Develop a joint plan to implement a systematic, coordinated TTA approach for CACs, multidisciplinary teams (MDTs), and state chapter organizations. The joint plan shall involve all four RCACs and the Tribal CAC TTA provider. The plan will be submitted to OJJDP for review and approval within 6 months of award.
- Conduct annual statewide TTA assessments in partnership with each state chapter within the region to develop a statewide TTA plan to address the needs of each state's local CACs and MDTs. These assessments will include state chapter capacity assessment and identification of any state chapter TTA needs.
- Develop and implement a coordinated TTA delivery plan annually for the region that is informed by the needs/priorities identified through the statewide TTA assessments and coordinated with other RCACs.
- Provide high-quality, customized technical assistance based upon needs identified in the above assessments and delivered in a systematic, coordinated process adopted across the RCACs.

- Deliver high-quality training opportunities for CACs, MDTs, and state chapters, including delivery of train-the-trainer approaches to increase impact, capacity, and reach based upon the above assessments.
- Develop and deliver resources, publications, and curricula to support the specific emerging needs of CACs and state chapters, including train-the-trainer materials based upon collaborative strategic alignment with VOCAA national partners.
- Strategically collaborate with the VOCAA-funded program partners to produce and annually maintain and update a 5-year strategic plan and a related operational plan to align efforts, maximize resources, and outline clear roles and responsibilities across the partners. Plans need to be delivered to OJJDP for review and approval by the tenth month of each year of the project following award. Each RCAC will be expected to participate in regularly scheduled VOCAA program partner meetings with OJJDP.

The Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables are directly related to the performance measures that show the completed work's results, as discussed in the Application and Submission Information section.

OJJDP Training and Technical Assistance Awardee Standards

OJJDP has developed the Core Performance Standards for Training, Technical Assistance, and Evaluation to promote among providers the consistency and quality of OJJDP-sponsored training and technical assistance and to advance common expectations of performance excellence. The standards present minimum expectations that providers must meet for effective practice in the planning, coordination, delivery, and evaluation of training.

Requirements related to coordination of activities will include, but are not limited to:

- Coordination with OJJDP NTTAC. OJJDP requires all training and technical assistance projects to coordinate their activities with the OJJDP National Training and Technical Assistance Center (NTTAC) by complying with all OJJDP/NTTAC protocols to ensure coordinated delivery of services among providers and the effective use of OJJDP grant funding. OJJDP reserves the right to modify these protocols at any time with reasonable notice to the grantee prior to project completion.
- OJJDP-funded webinars. The award recipient must comply with OJJDP's webinar guidelines, as described in the Core Performance Standards. Minimally, OJJDP training and technical assistance providers will submit information to OJJDP in advance of all events for the online calendar, record events, and provide the final files (which must be compliant with Section 508 of the Workforce Rehabilitation Act) to OJJDP or OJJDP's representative. For more information on Section 508 of the Workforce Rehabilitation Act, visit <https://www.section508.gov/>.
- Training information sharing. OJP will collect information from its program offices on OJP-funded training and technical assistance events. Award recipients must use OJJDP's standard electronic training request form, submit information to OJJDP on all training events (e.g., name of requester, description of request, dates of event) 30 days in advance of the event date, and report additional data, as OJJDP requires.

Evidence-Based Programs or Practices

OJP strongly encourages the use of data and evidence in policymaking and program development for criminal justice, juvenile justice, and crime victim services. For additional information and resources on evidence-based programs or practices, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities

OJP may conduct or support an evaluation of the programs and activities funded under this solicitation. For additional information, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide section entitled "Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities."

OJP Priority Areas

The Department of Justice is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights and racial equity, increases access to justice, supports crime victims and individuals impacted by the justice system, strengthens community safety and protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community.

1. Priority Considerations Supporting Executive Order 13985, Advancing Racial Equity and Support for Underserved Communities Through the Federal Government

Consistent with this Executive Order, the term “underserved community” refers to a population sharing a particular characteristic, as well as a geographic community, that has been systematically denied a full opportunity to participate in aspects of economic, social, and civic life or whose members have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by inequality. Such communities include, among others, Black people, Hispanics and Latino/a/e people, Native American and other Indigenous peoples of North America (including Alaska Natives, Eskimos, and Aleuts), Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islanders.

In support of Executive Order 13985, OJP will:

A. Give priority consideration to applications that include project(s) that will promote racial equity and the removal of barriers to access and opportunity for communities that have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by inequality, when making award decisions.

To receive this consideration, the applicant must describe how the proposed project(s) will address potential inequities and barriers to equal opportunity, and/or contribute to greater access to services for underserved and historically marginalized populations.

B. Give priority consideration to applicants that can demonstrate that their capabilities and competencies for implementing their proposed project(s) are enhanced because the applicant (or at least one proposed subrecipient that will receive at least 30% of the requested award funding, as demonstrated in the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative) identifies as a culturally specific organization. To receive this additional priority consideration, applicants must describe how being a culturally specific organization (or funding the culturally specific subrecipient organization(s)) will enhance their ability to implement the proposed project (s) and should also specify which culturally specific populations are intended or expected to be served or to have their needs addressed under the proposed project(s).

Culturally specific organizations are defined for purposes of this solicitation as private nonprofit or tribal organizations whose primary purpose as a whole is to provide culturally specific services to, among others, Black people, Hispanics and Latino/a/e people, Native American and other Indigenous peoples of North America (including Alaska Natives, Eskimos, and Aleuts), Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and/or Pacific Islanders.

Note: Addressing these priority areas is one of many factors that OJP considers in making funding decisions. Receiving priority consideration for one or more priority areas is not a guarantee of an award.

Within this section, the applicant will need to: add zip codes for areas affected by the project; confirm its Authorized Representative; and verify and confirm the organization's unique entity identifier, legal name, and address.

Proposal Abstract

A proposal abstract (no more than 400 words) summarizing the proposed project, including the purpose of the project, primary activities, expected outcomes, the service area, intended beneficiaries and subrecipients (if known), will be completed in the JustGrants web-based form. This abstract should be written in the third person and will be made publicly available on the OJP website if the project is awarded.

Proposal Narrative

The proposal narrative should be submitted as an attachment in JustGrants. The attached document should be double-spaced, using a standard 12-point font; have no less than 1-inch margins; and should not exceed 30 pages. Pages should be numbered and submitted as an attachment. If the proposal narrative fails to comply with these length restrictions, OJJDP may consider such noncompliance in peer review and in final award decision.

The following sections must be included as part of the proposal narrative:

a. Description of the Issue

Applicants should briefly describe the nature and scope of the issue that the program will address (e.g., define and describe the TTA needs of MDTs, CACs, and state chapter organizations across the applicable region) and demonstrate the size and scope of the problem (i.e., TTA needs). The applicant should use data to provide evidence that the problem exists, such as identifying methods and results of training needs assessments, gaps in capacity across the field, TTA gaps, and assessment of gaps in the both the quality and the reach of CACs and MDTs, and analysis of state chapter capacity needs in the applicable region.

Applicants should also describe demographics of the applicable region, such as baseline data for 3 prior years on the number and the annual percentage change of the following: (1) MDTs, developing CACs, and accredited CACs in each region; (2) CACs in the region meeting national standards, CACs pending full accreditation, and CACs reaccredited; and (3) state chapter analysis describing the number with full-time staff equivalent, average salary range commensurate for the state, state chapters in the region that conduct statewide needs assessments, and state chapters that provide accreditation support to CACs and MDTs. Any data or research referenced in the narrative should include information about the source of the data and/or a citation. Applicants should also provide information on how they have identified the needs in their respective regions and describe their strategic planning process for meeting those needs.

Applicants should describe any research or evaluation studies that relate to the problem (i.e., regional TTA needs of the children's advocacy field) and contribute to their understanding of its causes and potential solutions. While OJJDP expects applicants to review the research literature for relevant studies, they should also explore whether unpublished local sources of information, research, or evaluation data are available.

b. Project Design and Implementation

Applicants should detail how the project will operate throughout the funding period, describe the strategies that they will use to achieve identified goals and objectives, and complete the deliverables identified in the solicitation's Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables section. Applicants should clearly identify how they will address these goals and objectives by outlining specific, quantifiable statements of the project's desired results and clearly linking strategies to the problem identified in the preceding section. (Examples of measurable objectives include the following: increase the number of state chapters completing statewide assessments by X%; increase the number of MDTs and CACs using team facilitators by X%; reduce the number of CACs in accreditation pending status by X%; increase the number of accredited CACs by X%; increase the amount of state chapter accreditation training and support in the region by X%; and/or increase state chapter capacity by X% as measured by X, increase the number of CACs and MDTs with access to core TTA in X by X%, increase the number of CACs and MDTs with advance training in X or specialized training in X by X%, etc.).

Additionally, for the project design and implementation section, applicants should provide detailed, specific, and measurable activities and action steps that accomplish the deliverables and clearly connect to the analysis of the applicant region. Applicants should describe the proposed plans for planning and delivering a nationally coordinated system of TTA, region-specific assessments, and development and delivery of specific TTA capacity to the region. While the TTA processes may need to be coordinated as a first key deliverable in conjunction with the other regional awardees, applicants should describe their capacity and plans to develop and deliver TTA in specific and measurable terms as it relates to the proposed budget. (e.g., applicants may define the capacity to deliver TTA such as conduct X assessments and X individual TTA plans, develop X curricula of a specific size and scope, deliver in-person training to X locations or X persons, develop X number of train-the-trainer tools and disseminate to X number of trainers, develop X online modules or courses). Applicants should address each deliverable in the project design section and the related timeline described below. All TTA activities should be defined in enough specificity to describe the type, scope, method, duration, or intensity of the activity as well as the intended audience, number, and frequency of the activities (if reoccurring). All TTA support should be skill-focused with measurable outcomes and include plans for evaluating the TTA activity.

OJJDP encourages applicants to select evidence-based practices for their programs. This section should also include details regarding any leveraged resources (cash or in-kind) from local sources to support the project and align and maximize resources in a most cost-effective manner. OJJDP also encourages applicants to discuss plans for sustainability beyond the grant period.

If the applicant is seeking priority consideration for Priority 1(A), it should address in this section how the proposed project(s) will promote racial equity and/or the removal of barriers to access and opportunity, and/or contribute to greater access to services, for communities that have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by inequality.

Timeline. Applicants should submit a realistic timeline or milestone chart that indicates major tasks associated with the goals and objectives of the project, assigns responsibility for each, and plots completion of each task by month or quarter for the duration of the award, using "Year 1," "Month 1," "Quarter 1," etc., not calendar dates (see “Sample Project Timelines” here). Applicants should submit the timeline as a separate attachment, as stipulated in Additional Application Components. On receipt of an award, the recipient may revise the timeline, based on training and technical assistance that OJJDP will provide.

c. Capabilities and Competencies

This section should describe the experience and capability of the applicant organization and any contractors or subgrantees that the applicant will use to implement and manage this effort and its associated federal funding, highlighting any previous experience implementing projects of similar design or magnitude. Applicants should highlight their experience/capability/capacity to manage subawards, including details on their system for fiscal accountability. Management and staffing patterns should be clearly connected to the project design described in the previous section. Applicants should describe the roles and responsibilities of project staff and explain the program’s organizational structure and operations. Applicants should include a copy of an organizational chart showing how the organization operates, including who manages the finances; how the organization manages subawards, if there are any; and the management of the project proposed for funding.

Specific to this regional TTA program for MDTs, CACs, and state chapter organizations, applicants must demonstrate expertise consistent with the size and scope of this program in the children’s advocacy center field and the operational needs of the field at a regional level as well as an understanding of the organizational structure and processes of the national children’s advocacy center movement. Applicants must also demonstrate TTA expertise and experience, consistent with the project size and scope, managing large-scale multimodal TTA activities involving assessment, tailored delivery, and resource and curricula development and dissemination using both in-person and virtual or online platforms.

Application Review Information

Review Criteria

a. Merit Review Criteria

Applications that meet the basic minimum requirements will be evaluated by peer reviewers on how the proposed project/program addresses the following criteria:

1. Description of the Issue (15%) – evaluate the applicant's understanding of the program/issue to be addressed.
2. Project Design and Implementation (45%) – evaluate the adequacy of the proposal, including the goals, objectives, timelines, milestones, and deliverables.

Capabilities and Competencies (25%) – evaluate the applicant's administrative and technical capacity to successfully accomplish the goals and objectives.

4. Plan for Collecting the Data Required for This Solicitation's Performance Measures (5%) – evaluate the applicant's understanding of the performance data reporting requirements and the plan for collecting the required data.
5. Budget (10%) – evaluate for completeness, cost effectiveness, and allowability (e.g., reasonable, allocable, and necessary for project activities).

b. Other Review Criteria/Factors

Other important considerations for OJJDP include geographic diversity, strategic priorities (specifically including, but not limited to, those mentioned above relating to priority areas), available funding, past performance, memoranda of understanding for joint applications and documentation of any other strategic agreements, and the extent to which the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative (web-based form) accurately explain project costs that are reasonable, necessary, and otherwise allowable under federal law and applicable federal cost principles.

Review Process

Applications submitted under this solicitation that meet the basic minimum requirements will be evaluated for technical merit by a peer review panel(s) in accordance with OJP peer review policy and procedures using the review criteria listed above.

OJP screens applications to ensure they meet the basic minimum requirements prior to conducting the peer review. Although specific requirements may vary, the following are common requirements applicable to all OJP solicitations:

- The application must be submitted by an eligible type of applicant.
- The application must request funding within programmatic funding constraints (if applicable).
- The application must be responsive to the scope of the solicitation.
- The application must include all items necessary to meet the basic minimum requirements.

Pursuant to the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, before award decisions are made, OJP also reviews information related to the degree of risk posed by the applicant. Among other things to help assess whether an applicant with one or more prior federal awards has a satisfactory record with respect to performance, integrity, and business ethics, OJP checks whether the applicant is listed in SAM as excluded from receiving a federal award.

In addition, if OJP anticipates that an award will exceed $250,000 in federal funds, OJP also must review and consider any information about the applicant that appears in the nonpublic segment of the integrity and performance system accessible through SAM (currently, the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System, FAPIIS).

Important note on FAPIIS: An applicant may review and comment on any information about itself that currently appears in FAPIIS and was entered by a federal awarding agency. OJP will consider such comments by the applicant, in addition to the other information in FAPIIS, in its assessment of the risk posed by the applicant.

Absent explicit statutory authorization or written delegation of authority to the contrary, all final award decisions will be made by the Assistant Attorney General, who may consider not only peer review ratings and OJJDP recommendations, but also other factors as indicated in this section.
